My dear Miss Gootsman:

Acknowledgement is herewith made of your communication dated April 30th, advising me that you are anxious to obtain information on Pre-Revolutionary Indian Peace Medals made by Americans.

I would suggest that you call on Mr. Howland Wood of The American Numismatic Society, 156th Street & Broadway, New York City. The American Numismatic Society has the finest collection of Indian Peace Medals in existence. Mr. Wood is perhaps the foremost authority on this subject in America and I am sure that you can get all the information you desire from him. Mr. Wood will also show you a copy of the book published by his Society some years ago on this particular subject wherein they have illustrated all the known varieties of Indian Peace Medals struck in the United States from the inception of the Indian Peace Medal up to the last one which, I believe, was struck in 1889.

Although I have a very large collection of Indian Peace Medals I believe that you will get more satisfaction and more information from Mr. Howland Wood.

Yours very truly,

F. C. C. Boyd.
